

Dear partners in ministry,

Roger and I are so incredibly grateful for the love and support that you have shown us this past year in your sacrificial giving to our ministry with TEAM. With my full time job I'm sorry to say that I haven't had much time or energy to write and keep in touch.

I'm hoping that will change, as we feel that we can make it financially with me cutting down to part time on Jan. 1st. My company has graciously taken me on as their first part time employee.

Rog continues with a busy schedule at TEAM, loves his job in training and especially when he gets to travel overseas. It looks like he will be making another trip to Thailand this coming Spring.

Kevin and Bridget have some big changes coming. Kevin has been asked by AIM (Africa Inland Mission) to take the position as Director of their TIMO program. (Training In Ministry Outreach). They will be relocating from Boston to Tanzania probably next Fall or as soon as they can raise their support from 60 up to 100%. They welcomed baby Abigail, #4, to their family in this past May.

Chris and Naomi are delighted to announce that they are expecting baby #1 next April. They are moving from Plymouth MA, to Nanuet, New York where Chris will be starting a Nurse Practitioner program in January, earning a BS/MSN degree. They will be living with Naomi's parents, which will help them financially as well as allow them to be a help and encouragement to Naomi's Mom and Dad. Her Dad was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer 18 month ago.

We would so love to sit and talk over a cup of coffee (or tea) and catch up again. Actually with my part time work schedule, we hope to be able to do some traveling and connecting again.

Again, thank you for supporting us as your missionaries, and may you have much to be thankful for this Thanksgiving season.

Love
